

Program at-a-glance
CPS Lifelong Learning in Paediatrics
October 19-21, 2018 (Banff, Alberta)
Fairmont Banff Springs Hotel – Mezzanine Level 2
Chair: Chloë Joynt, MD

Friday, October 19 (3.5 study credits)	Saturday, October 20 (4.5 study credits)	Sunday, October 21 (3.75 study credits)
0730 Registration opens (Oval Room)	0630 Registration opens (Oval Room)	0730 Registration opens (Oval Room)
0730 Continental breakfast, with exhibits (Conservatory Room)	0645 Participants pick up their food and proceed to Cascade (Conservatory Room)	0730 Continental breakfast, with exhibits (Conservatory Room)
0800 Welcome and announcements (Cascade Ballroom)	0700 Breakfast symposium Management of fever in children Co-developed with Pfizer Consumer Healthcare William Craig, MD (Cascade Ballroom)	0800 Welcome and announcements (Cascade Ballroom)
0810 Consequences of proton pump inhibitor (PPI) use in children Valérie Marchand, MD	0810 Question/answer session	0810 General lecture New innovations in gene therapy Ronald Cohn, MD
0830 Question/answer session	0820 Visit the exhibitors (Conservatory Room)	0900 Question/answer session
0840 New frontiers in diagnosis and treatment of genetic disorders Sylvia Stockler, MD, PhD	0840 Antimicrobial stewardship: Pick the right drug for the bug Joan Robinson, MD (Cascade Ballroom)	0910 Ten-minute intermission
0900 Question/answer session	0900 Question/answer session	0920 Concurrent workshops with refreshments (repeated from Friday)
0910 The impact of immunizations on serious bacterial infections (SBIs) in children Joan Robinson, MD	0910 Update on Kawasaki disease Mercedes Chan, MD	1050 “Hot topics” panel (Cascade Ballroom)
0930 Question/answer session	0930 Question/answer session	1055 Rheumatology The epidemiology of Lyme disease (new guidelines) Mercedes Chan, MD
0940 Current juvenile idiopathic arthritis (JIA) treatment modalities Mercedes Chan, MD	0940 Irritable bowel syndrome: Don’t cramp my style Valérie Marchand, MD	1105 Genetics Expensive drugs for rare diseases, a bottomless pit? Sylvia Stockler, MD, PhD
1000 Question/answer session	1000 Question/answer session	1115 Infectious diseases Probiotics and antibiotic use Joan Robinson, MD
1010 Health break, with exhibits (Conservatory Room)	1010 Current investigations for a child with intellectual disability Sylvia Stockler, MD, PhD	1125 Gastroenterology H. Pylori , food protein-induced enterocolitis syndrome (FPIES), safety of polyethylene glycol (PEG) 3350 blog Valérie Marchand, MD
1030 Concurrent workshops	1030 Question/answer session	1135 Ask the experts (panel discussion)
1. Gastroenterology Current management of common gastrointestinal problems: What to do and when to refer? Valérie Marchand, MD (New Brunswick – Mezzanine 2)	1040 Health break, with exhibits (Conservatory Room)	1155 Closing remarks
2. Genetics Case-based presentation, with pictures. Sylvia Stockler, MD, PhD (Frontenac – Mezzanine 1)	1100 Concurrent workshops (repeated from Friday)	1200 Adjournment
3. Infectious diseases Case-based problems from the plenary talks. Joan Robinson, MD (Champlain – Mezzanine 1)	1230 Adjournment
4. Rheumatology Let’s rock the joint: The rheumatology physical exam. Mercedes Chan, MD (Empress – Mezzanine 1)
1200 Adjournment
1800 Welcome reception Before heading out for the evening, join friends and colleagues for hors d’œuvres and a drink from our cash bar. Accompanying guests are welcome. Dress code: business casual. (Mt. Stephens Hall, Mezzanine 1)

Modified: October 3, 2018